

Bathroom Designer

May 25

Porter is recruiting a Bathroom Designer to join its team.

We are a distinguished high-end bathroom brand dedicated to the art of materiality and craftsmanship. Our philosophy asserts that exceptional design should extend to every space in your home so we endeavour to create serene environments. We curate collections that transform bathrooms into havens of tranquillity and sophistication. The candidate will be an integral part of the Porter design & sales team and play a key role in developing projects. We require someone with passion who has an understanding and appreciation for good design and the Porter design ethos. This is a fantastic opportunity to join an established, growing company in the high-end interior sector.

What you will do;

- Translate briefs into realistic bathroom solutions, in keeping with the brand's design language.
- Create well considered drawing proposals in both 2d & 3d packs.
- Create detailed design plans, elevations, mood boards & renderings.
- Create workshop production drawings for any bespoke elements.
- Work closely with the sales, client or ext. designer on project details to ensure efficient work flow.
- Provide clients with knowledgeable, friendly and quality customer service.

About you;

- A motivated self-starter with a high degree of proficiency.
- Excellent communication and organisational skills.
- At least 3+ years of experience in a similar role within the industry.
- Proficient in professional CAD packages. Preferably Vectorworks.
- Proficient in creating high quality 3d-models and renderings.
- Proficient in Adobe Creative Suite for presentation.
- Have excellent spatial awareness to put forward well-balanced technical solutions to projects.
- Ability to easily understand and interpret information from designers drawings and specifications.
- Strong technical ability and excellent presentational skills.
- A resourceful, optimistic nature with great care and attention who enjoys a challenge, open to all aspects of projects with a hands-on attitude.

The position offers a fantastic opportunity for an enthusiastic individual wanting to grow and progress their career. Please send your CV & portfolio outlining your suitability for the position to :
