

Mid Weight Interior Designer

Start date: November/December

Location: West London - W12

Hours 9.30-6pm

Description:

We are looking for a talented, experienced Interior Designer to join our boutique studio working on variety of high profile, ultra-high end projects, both in UK and abroad.

You would be supporting director in all areas of business, must have technical knowledge in ID RIBA Stages 0-6 as well as experience in FFE procurement.

Experience in working on high end projects is essential, candidates must have excellent communication and presentation skills, technical drawing and specification ability and great attention to detail.

Requirements:

Bachelor Degree in Architecture, Interior Design or Interior Architecture,

High proficiency in AutoCad, InDesign, Excel, Photoshop, Sketchup, V-ray, (Rhino and Revit knowledge an advantage),

Minimum 3 years post graduate office experience,

Ability to work on several projects at the time,

UK residency and ability to travel,

Driving licence is an advantage,

Please send your CV, portfolio with examples of office work, cover letter with salary expectations to info@studioaida.co.uk.

Please note that we can only respond to successful candidates.