

MID-WEIGHT INTERIOR DESIGNER | LONDON

An established, internationally recognised interior design studio is seeking a talented Mid-Weight Interior Designer to join its London team.

Working across high-end residential and boutique hospitality projects, you will contribute to the delivery of beautifully considered interiors from concept through to installation. This role requires both creative sensitivity and technical precision, with a strong understanding of craftsmanship, detail, and function.

The role:

- Develop design concepts, schemes, and presentations
- Produce detailed AutoCAD drawings and FF&E schedules
- Source and specify fabrics, finishes, and bespoke elements
- Liaise with suppliers, contractors, and consultants
- Support site coordination, installations, and final styling

About you:

- 3+ years' experience within a high-end interior design studio
- Strong design sensibility with a refined, detail-driven approach
- Technically confident, with excellent AutoCAD and FF&E knowledge
- Highly organised, with the ability to manage multiple project stages
- Professional, collaborative, and confident in communication

Details:

Full-time | 12-month FTC (with potential to extend) | London studio-based
