Junior Interior Designer role:

Cave Interiors is seeking an enthusiastic Junior Interior Designer to join our small, friendly & dynamic team at our studio in Primrose Hill, London.

This is for maternity cover with a view to a possible full-time position. All candidates should be eligible to work in the UK. Salary will be based on experience.

Cave Interiors is a well-established Interior Design company specialising in high-end residential projects throughout the UK. The role will involve working closely with Georgina & Anouska on projects, administration and office management. This is an excellent opportunity to join a professional design practice. We are looking for someone who would like to grow in the industry and be part of a busy studio, helping to manage a variety of different projects, clients and suppliers.

The ideal candidate MUST have at least 1 year + experience in a residential design studio in the UK. Any less and the application won't pass the initial stages. Strong technical skills in AutoCAD are essential with experience in general administrative tasks such as ordering, tracking orders, budget control and writing up schedules. We are looking for someone who is highly organised, creative and happy to get involved in all aspects of the design process including assisting on FF&E.

The candidate should have a design background and a passion for interior design, architecture and the arts.

Skills required:

- A design qualification from a recognised design school or university
- Strong AutoCAD skills (NOT Vectorworks)
- Experience writing up detailed and clear schedules
- Proficiency in Microsoft Word & Excel, Estimac, Photoshop & Sketch Up
- A full understanding of plans and technical drawings
- Hand sketching abilities are a bonus
- Excellent verbal/written communication
- Previous experience sourcing fabrics, furniture, lighting etc. including vintage & antique pieces
- Previous experience in general administrative tasks to include ordering, tracking orders and budget control.
- An interest in re-use and sustainability

Please submit your CV to studio@caveinteriors.com along with the following:

- A cover letter explaining your current role and company you are with, your responsibilities and aspirations for a new job
- Your portfolio
- Three images of interiors that inspire you.

We look forward to hearing from you.
Georgina & Anouska
