About Nina Campbell:

Nina Campbell is a leading British interiors brand known for its refined furniture, fabrics, wallpaper, and home accessories. Founded in 1972 and proudly family-run, the business combines a world-renowned design studio with a flourishing retail showroom. The flagship Pimlico Road store showcases the full range, from furniture and accessories to the latest fabric and wallpaper collections.

Key Responsibilities

- Welcoming and assisting clients in a professional, approachable manner
- Providing product information across accessories, wallpaper, and furniture collections
- Processing sales using Shopify (training provided if needed)
- Maintaining showroom presentation and stock displays
- Supporting the team with general administrative and retail tasks

About You

- Previous experience in retail or another client-facing role
- Comfortable engaging with customers and providing excellent service
- Ideally familiar with Shopify or similar POS systems
- A genuine interest in interior design, home décor, or design-led retail
- Reliable, organised, and happy to work independently when needed
- Perfect role for a student or someone seeking flexible weekend work

If you're passionate about interiors and enjoy helping customers find pieces they love, we'd be delighted to hear from you.
