

Sales Assistant – Luxury Interior Showroom

- London based
- Monday to Friday
- Full-Time | Permanent

We are looking for an experienced and self-motivated Sales Assistant.

This is a fantastic opportunity for a confident and well-presented individual with a strong background in sales, ideally within interiors, retail, or luxury design.

Please note this is a showroom-based sales role for somebody with a genuine love of interiors, not a design position.

Key Responsibilities:

- Manage the showroom independently, ensuring smooth daily operations
- Provide outstanding customer service to private clients, interior designers, and architects
- Handle the full sales cycle – from initial enquiry through to after-sales care
- Coordinate with the warehouse for deliveries, last-minute changes, and follow-up on any issues or complaints
- Build and maintain strong product knowledge to support client decisions
- Maintain showroom appearance and visual merchandising standards
- Manage client samples and assist with sales administration
- Flexibility to rotate between our three London showrooms

What We're Looking For:

- Proven sales experience, ideally in interiors, design, or high-end retail
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Comfortable working independently and managing all aspects of the showroom
- Strong attention to detail, with the ability to handle logistics and after-sales coordination
- Impeccable personal presentation and a professional, engaging manner
- Organised, proactive, and highly responsible

If you're passionate about design, enjoy client-facing roles, and thrive in a boutique environment, we'd love to hear from you.
