

Showroom Sales Consultant

GP&J Baker is a world-renowned heritage fabric and wallpaper company with a rich legacy of design excellence. We work with leading designers, retailers, and industry professionals to bring timeless luxury and innovation to interiors across the globe.

We are seeking an exceptional candidate to support our Showroom team in the Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour.

The role involves maintaining the showroom to an excellent standard, while providing excellent customer service and offering scheme and design solutions to a range of high-end interior designers, architects and trade customers. You will build sales through product and brand knowledge, supporting the achievement of team targets.

You will ideally have prior knowledge and understanding of the company's products and market place, with sales experience in a similar industry. Exceptional interpersonal, networking and communication skills are essential.

We offer a competitive salary and benefits package depending on the skills and experience of the successful candidate.

If you are interested please forward your CV and a covering letter to:
