Job Title: Mid Weight Interior Designer

Location: Islington, London

Contract: Full time

Working Hours: 9:00–18:00

Experience - 3-5 years

About the Studio

RAW is an interior architecture and design studio founded by Rachel Aisling Walker. Our focus is on creating exceptional interiors that are strongly rooted in architecture, design and history, and are at once serene, timeless and inviting. With a particular emphasis on natural materials, craftsmanship and heritage; we mix antique, modern and contemporary furniture with our own designs – always with an eye for the unexpected.

In the new year we'll be launching our own furniture collection. Our clients will be able to experience the collection in person – alongside a curated selection of antique pieces – in our new Islington showroom.

Key Responsibilities

- Develop design concepts from initial briefing through to completion
- Produce detailed drawings, specifications, schedules, and FF&E documentation
- Prepare mood boards, presentations, and material palettes
- Coordinate with suppliers, contractors, and consultants
- Attend client meetings and site visits, representing the studio professionally
- Support procurement, including sourcing, pricing, and EstiMac entry
- Maintain accuracy and organisation across all project documentation

Skills & Requirements

- 3–5 years professional experience within a high-end interior design environment
- Strong proficiency in AutoCAD
- Confident using Mac-based software and EstiMac
- Excellent space planning, detailing, and material knowledge
- Strong communication and presentation skills
- Ability to manage workload and meet deadlines across multiple projects
- A keen eye for quality, craftsmanship, and luxury design standards
